Chapter 1 by Cat4055

It was never going to be a normal day for me, was it? Sometimes I just wished I could have one. But in the words of some random person, "With great powers comes a load of crap you have to deal with.". My crap, was having the government want to experiment on me. Sure, maybe it was sometimes useful, but when they're trying to see how much electricity they can hit you with before you faint, or die, whichever comes first, now that's annoying.
